He has some sort of political movement underway in Montreal. If this man should contact gullible people who's values are completely twisted, he could become a real threat, for he is a political, social, and racial absolutist. It may be going too far to say that Kuendell should be watched, but he should certainly be noted. He said that he plans to institute a political movement in the United States. This man appears to be too dangerous to be discounted.

Dear Sir:

My name is Ernest Zuendel; I am an Evening Student at Sir George Williams University, Montreal, Quebec.

For approximately three weeks during the latter part of January and early February 89 students staged a seige of the S.G.W.'s Computer Centre which ultimately culminated in the disastrous events of February 11th. The Computer Centre was ravaged and several million dollars worth of damage resulted. The people, who were arrested, are now before the Courts.

The problem started with a charge of "Racism" laid by a minority of black students against a white professor. Black Power Maoists and other radicals joined them with the above results.

We, the Evening Students, are now conducting a "Post-Mortem" to find out exactly how, when, why and by whom the "Problem" arose and for what ultimate aim.

The F.B.I. under your leadership has done excellent research into the areas of the "New Left", "Black Power" and all the other radical groups.

REC 11

Please furnish us with copies of all the F.B.I. reports relating to this subject and also those reports by various Congressional Committees.

Please mail them to me and bill me. Hoping to hear from you soon.

Two Groups Accused Of Funding Nazis

By MARCIA KRAMER

Two private foundations are funneling huge sums of money from right-wing groups to high-level Nazi war criminals both here and abroad, Nazi hunter Simon Wiesenthal said yesterday. He said donations made to the foundations are tax-deductible.

The foundations were identified as the Hermine Ryan Defense Fund of New York and the Patriotic Legal Fund of Marietta, Ga. Wiesenthal said the foundations collect money from some 80 neo-Nazi and neo-Fascist groups in the U.S. and Canada to help former Nazi butchers avoid detection and prosecution.

Special Sabbath Service

Wiesenthal made the disclosures after he was honored by the American Jewish Committee during a special Sabbath service in memory of six million victims of the Holocaust.

During the ceremony at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, Rep. Elizabeth Holtzman, who has sought the deportation of 10 people living in the U.S. who have been identified as war criminals, charged that the Immigration and Naturalization Service has failed to deal with the cases of Nazi war criminals living in the U.S.

The Brooklyn legislator called on the House subcommittee on immigration to investigate why these people were permitted to enter the country and become citizens.

"Under present immigration laws, if Hitler were alive today, he could enter this country — because there is no bar on Nazi war criminals," she said. She added that she has a bill in Congress to bar entry of any more such persons.

According to Wiesenthal, the two foundations have provided the financial support for the 10 Nazis fighting deportation.

In addition, he said, the Hermine Ryan Fund paid the expenses incurred by Mrs. Ryan, the former Queens housewife, in her nine-year deportation battle, and has been paying her legal fees since she was deported to West Germany in 1973 to stand trial in the murders of 250,000 Jews at the Maidanek Concentration Camp near Lublin, Poland.

Wiesenthal, who is the director of the Jewish Documentation Center for Nazi War Crimes in Vienna, Austria, and himself a survivor of the Mauthausen Concentration Camp, said that the Patriotic Legal Fund is connected with White Power Publications of Liverpool, W. Va.

White Power prints 60 publications in five languages that are used in propaganda campaigns in the U.S., South America, Europe and South Africa. It also sends German-language editions of subversive books on Nazi Germany to German underground groups.

White Power's price list, which gives the costs in both dollars and Deutschmarks, offers 47 titles, including "Adolf Hitler's Testament," "My Part in Germany's Fight. Dr. Goebbels," and "Mein Kampf" in paperback and hard-bound editions.

In connection with his trial on 6/21/06, an FBI report dated 4/9/01, was mentioned and was prepared while Ernst Zundel and his wife Ingrid Rimland was living in Tennessee. The report became known through the newsletter "Germania Rudbriefe", dated November 10, 2004, which was probably written by his wife Ingrid Rimland. Apparently, Rimland and Zundel's defense attorneys are in possession the report.

TORONTO UPDATE JUNE 7/95

Two hundred picketers at the U.S. consulate in Toronto on Monday June 5th protested Pennsylvania Governor Ridge's signing of the death warrant to execute political prisoner Mumia Abu Jamal.
There were no arrests.

- Organized as an emergency response by the Partisan Defense Committee in Toronto with support from Prison News Service,
- * Anti-Racist Action, Black Action Defense Committee, Arm the Spirit and other groups, the demonstrators were asked to let Gov. Ridge know HIS EVERY MOVE IS BEING WATCHED -
 - * INTERNATIONALLY. The Associated Press was criticized for its misinformation about Abu-Jamal. As a revolutionary journalist, Abu-Jamal was targeted and sentenced to die for his writing, broadcasting and his INFLUENCE: he did not "become a celebrity through his writings from prison", as some claim.

Neither did Abu-Jamal's case raise attention only because of the recent publication of his book, as reports claim. Abu-Jamal has had worldwide support for his entire twelve years on death row, and was a well respected journalist and activist prior to imprisonment.

Organizers met after the two-hour demo and discussed the planning of upcoming events and actions in support of Abu-Jamal's defense. A united front will respond to any call from MOVE people. Toronto and the southern Ontario region will be the site of various anti-prison and political prisoner support initiatives this summer, including Prisoners' Justice Day (Aug. 10), from which solidarity with MOVE people and Mumia Abu-Jamal's fight for a new trial can hopefully be generated on a large scale. Art Against the Death Penalty, the art show in support of Mumia Abu-Jamal, is scheduled to be in Toronto the month of August.

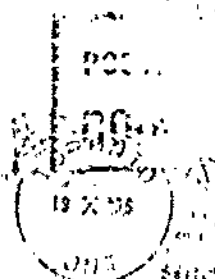

Prior to the demonstration, activists hung a banner on a busy downtown overpass demanding: STOP THE LEGAL LYNCHING OF MUMIA ABU JAMAL - U.S. POLITICAL PRISONER ON DEATH ROW. More public propaganda is planned. We will also be attempting to make more contacts with "mainstream" press, liberal and church groups, etc.

Reference is made to your letter dated November 26, 1999, requesting information regarding Ernst Zundel in relation to three high-profile acts of violence perpetrated by white supremacists in the United States. You will recall that in the referenced FBI letter, we advised that our Los Angeles, California Division indicated that there is no mention of Zundel with regards to the 1999 shooting spree in Los Angeles, California and subsequent murder of a U.S. Postal worker.

Our Houston Division responded as follows: The brutal dragging death of James Byrd, Jr., was thoroughly investigated by FBI Houston. Subjects [redacted] and [redacted] were prosecuted in state court with the assistance of the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Texas, and the full investigative support of the FBI. It is noted that a complete background investigation was conducted on each of the three aforementioned subjects, to include their association with white supremacist gangs and other hate groups. During the course of the investigation, no information was developed associating any of the subjects or victim Byrd with Ernst Zundel or his movement.

SUBJECT: ERNST ZUNDEL

REFERENCE: [redacted]

Your referenced note requested information concerning the current status of Ernst ZUNDEL. The FBI has a minimum of information concerning ZUNDEL, inasmuch as he is incarcerated in Canada for violations of Canadian law:

ZUNDEL, date of birth 23 April 1939, is described as a leading, pro-Nazi, Holocaust-denial propagandist, who was active in Canada for more than two decades. ZUNDEL, who claims the genocide of six million Jews never happened, was indicted in Canada in 1988 for publishing false news involving denial of the Holocaust. ZUNDEL was also indicted in Germany in 1991 for inciting racial hatred.

As recently as October 2003, ZUNDEL was being held in Canada [redacted]

Title: FINDINGS OF THE OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL (OIG) DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE,
CRITICAL OF FORENSIC WORK PERFORMED
BY CERTAIN LAB EXAMINERS

Synopsis: To place this document on record in the Task Force control file and to place a copy on the top serial in every investigative file containing forensic work performed by any of the thirteen Laboratory Examiners whose scientific work was criticized by the OIG.

Reference: 66F-HQ-A1211968 Serial 82

Details: BE ADVISED, one or more of the Laboratory Examiners who performed scientific analysis in this investigation was criticized in the OIG's report issued on April 15, 1997. The OIG conducted a thorough review of allegations of wrongdoing and improper practices within certain sections of the FBI Laboratory. It issued a report which, among other findings, was critical of the scientific work performed by thirteen individual examiners assigned to the Lab. The allegations and criticisms concerning these individuals varies greatly and in some instances is case specific..

If the forensic work contained in this file is used in any way in the future, both the OIG's findings and the forensic analysis of the examiners should be reviewed. In addition, legal advice should be obtained as to the FBI's disclosure obligations.

The criticized examiners are, in alphabetical order:

Result of examination:

General Information:

You advised that the submitted specimens were recovered following an explosion near the garage door of captioned residence on September 9, 1984. The FBI Laboratory was requested to examine the submitted specimens and conduct intercomparison examinations relative to similar type bombing incidents which have been previously examined in the Laboratory.

Photographs:

Enclosed for your assistance is one set of photographs depicting the submitted specimens.

Improvised Explosive Device:

Present in the submitted specimens are the fragmented remains of an exploded improvised explosive device (IED)/ pipe bomb employing a low explosive main charge contained within an enclosed pipe nipple, tape, a plastic bag, metal nuts and nails and electrical wire. Due to the presence of numerous lengths of electrical wire, which have been extensively damaged in the explosion, the fuzing system of this IED/pipe bomb appears to be electrical. However, other components which are necessary in an electrical fuzing system (battery and delay mechanism, such as a clock or watch) were not present among the submitted specimens.

A detailed description of the individual components of this IED/pipe bomb is set forth hereafter.

MAIN CHARGE

The main charge of this IED was determined to be single-base smokeless powder, of which several unconsumed particles are present in specimen Q790D. The manufacturer of this powder was not determined.

PIPE CONTAINER

Present in specimen 790A through 790D are the fragmented remains of a standard weight, galvanized 1 1/2" pipe-size pipe nipple which had been sealed on each end with a 1 1/2" pipe-size pipe end cap. These fragments exhibit the observable physical characteristics which are associated with the explosion of a low explosive. Present on an end cap fragment in specimen Q790B is a part of a manufacturer's symbol in the shape of a circle. However, no identification was effected due to the limited amount of the symbol remaining.

Examination revealed the presence of a distorted, counter-sunk, transverse priming hole, measuring approximately 1/8" in diameter, through one piece of the fragmented pipe nipple. Logically, this hole accommodated the electrical wire of the fuze system.

WIRE

Present in specimen Q792 are the following types of wire which have been extensively damaged by the exploding IED/pipe bomb:

Color of Insulation	Number of Strands	Type of Wire	Gauge of Wire
Red	1	Copper	22 (AWG)
Blue	1	Copper	22 (AWG)
Blue	1	Copper	24 (AWG)
Light Blue	1	Copper	26 (AWG)
Green	1	Copper	26 (AWG)
Dark Blue/Green (Telephone-type)	1	Copper	24 (AWG)

An extensive search was conducted through the Laboratory's blasting cap/leg wire reference collection in an effort to identify a specific blasting cap from the submitted wires with negative results. Therefore, it is not possible, at this time, to positively establish whether some of the wire originated from an electric blasting cap or from the hook-up of another type of initiator.

FRAGMENTATION

Present in specimen Q791 are eleven (11) metal nuts and three (3) masonry/concrete nails which have apparently been used as additional fragmentation in the construction of this IED/pipe bomb.

TAPE

Present on some of the metal fragments in specimens 790B, 790C, and 790D are the fragmented remains of white and tan masking and transparent tape. The widths of these lengths of tape were not determined.

PLASTIC BAG

Present in specimen Q790D are the fragmented and melted remains of what appears to have been a white plastic bag which has been used to conceal the IED/pipe bomb from observation.

Intercomparison Examination:

The remains of this exploded IED/pipe bomb including the location of emplacement were intercompared with incidents which have been the object of Laboratory examinations.

This intercomparison revealed many incidents which have utilized similar components as submitted in present matter. However, due to the lack of identifying characteristics, such as toolmarks, tape end matches, and specific alteration of components, no identification or association was effected in these intercomparisons.

Disposition of Specimens:

The submitted specimens are being returned to your office under separate cover by registered mail.

~~Fragmentation~~

Fragmentation

Present in specimen Q791 are eleven (11) metal nuts and three (3) masonry/concrete nails which have apparently used as additional fragmentation in the construction of this IED/pip bomb.

Tape

Present on some of the metal fragments in specimens

790 B, C, and D are the fragmental remains of ~~the fragments~~, white and tan masking and transparent tape. The widths

~~white plastic bag~~

of these lengths of tape were not determined.

Plastic Bag

Present in specimen Q790D are the fragmented and melted remains of what appears to have been a white plastic bag which has been used to conceal the IED/pipe bomb from view.

Intercomparison Examinations:

The remains of this exploded IED/pipe bomb including the location of emplacement were intercompared with incidents which have been the object of laboratory examinations.

This intercomparison revealed many incidents which have ~~utilized~~ ^{similar} components as submitted in present matter.
However, due to the lack of ~~specific~~ identifying characteristics, such as toolmarks, typed notches, and ~~other~~ specific attention of components, no identification or association was effected in these intercomparisons.

Disposition of Specimens:

The submitted specimens are being returned to your office under separate cover by registered mail.

Dear [redacted]

Your office had requested the status of Ernst Christof Friedrich Zundel, 61, one of the world's leading disseminators of Holocaust denial and neo-Nazi literature and videotapes. As your office is already aware, Zundel currently lives at 2869 Hatcher Mountain Road, Sevierville, Tennessee, United States of America (USA). He shares this residence with his website administrator, Ingrid A. Rimland. Rimland, 64, is the author of a series of pro-Nazi books known collectively as "Lebensraum!" Their phone number in Sevierville is 865-774-7756. Zundel and Rimland are married.

The FBI's Domestic Terrorism/Counter-terrorism Planning Section is familiar with Mr. Zundel's history of legal problems within Canada, specifically relating to the False News Law and Section 13 of the Canadian Human Rights Act. However, there is no record of Zundel being involved in any acts of violence and/or acts of domestic terrorism within the USA. In addition, there is no record of Zundel being involved in any legal proceedings (misdemeanor or felony) within the USA. Therefore, because there is no indication that Mr. Zundel is currently engaged in any criminal activity, no investigative action is being contemplated against him at this time. This is in keeping with the Attorney General's Guidelines on General Crimes, Racketeering Enterprise and Domestic Security/Terrorism Investigations.

During the course of the interview on 5/1/2001, Zundel advised as follows:

He married Ingrid Rimland on 1/19/2000 in King County, California, which is near Harrah's Ranch.

He and his wife bought their house on Hatcher Mountain Road in June of 2000 and subsequently moved to Tennessee. He and Ingrid decided to move to Tennessee, because the Sevier County area reminded them of the Black Forest in Germany, and the house they purchased looked just like Zundel's mother's house in Calmbach.

He closed his publishing house, his satellite TV show, and his radio program prior to moving to Tennessee. He is tired of being in the spotlight and just wants to spend his time painting.

He originally left Germany in 1958, because he did not want to get drafted into the German Army. He immigrated to Canada and became a landed immigrant.

He first became involved in the Revisionist Movement when he wrote a letter to the editor of his local Canadian newspaper. He believed that the world media had not been treating Germany fairly when it came to World War II and the Holocaust.

He is not a White Supremacist. Over the years, he has dealt with many historical issues and has given over 1000 interviews on the subject of Nazi Germany's treatment of the Jews. He has broadcasted over 550 interviews on radio and TV.

He has had to promote himself to make enough money to fight off all the attacks that have come his way because of his views. He has never promoted or encouraged violence, but to the contrary, has always believed in non-violence. He believes in evolutionary change, not revolutionary change. He has always been an advocate of understanding, and he has always spoken for himself only, not for any group or organization.

He met [redacted] in 1972, and in [redacted] [redacted] came to Toronto to [redacted] He thought [redacted] had a very strange outlook on religion.

Re: 266C-KX-67509, 05/31/2001

b6

He has applied for an Adjustment of Status with INS and hopes to get a green card. The INS card he now has allows him to work. He is painting landscapes as this is something he has always wanted to do.

Zundel advised there have never been any groups or individuals who have tried to get him involved in any violent activity or who have used him as a sounding board for their plans for violent activities. He stated he would contact the FBI if he ever received any information concerning such groups or individuals.

It is recommended that this case remain in a closed status.

Holocaust denier gets court reprieve

Sevier resident, being held in Canada, should be able to fight deportation

BY JAMIE SATTERFIELD
satterfield@knews.com

A Holocaust denier booted from his Sevier County home — and the country — should get a shot at arguing against his deportation, a federal appellate court has ruled.

Whether Ernst Zundel, 65, will actually be allowed to appear in U.S. District Court in Knoxville remains unclear, however. Zundel is in solitary confinement in a detention center in Toronto, Canada, where he is accused of being a threat to that country's national security.

Zundel is a German-born graphic artist and publisher whose 1980 pamphlet "Did Six Million Really Die?" rocketed him to infamy as a Holocaust denier and — as some allege — neo-Nazi.

He lived in Canada for decades, but had long been denied citizenship. In 2000, Zundel entered the United States on a temporary visa. He then married Ingrid A. Rimland, a native of the Soviet Union who had become a U.S. citizen.

The couple moved to Wears Valley and opened an art gallery. In February 2003, the INS arrested Zundel on a charge that he had overstayed his visa and failed to follow through on his attempts to attain permanent residence status here.

Zundel and his wife cried foul, claiming the Holocaust revisionist was being persecuted for his views. Sevierville attorney Boyd Venable III filed a petition in federal court here to try to stop his deportation, but Senior Federal Judge James Jarvis refused to hear it, writing that there was "no legal basis" for his intervention.

from A1

Zundel was eventually deported to Canada, where officials are trying to send him back to Germany. He faces hate crime charges there in connection with his writings, which include the book "The Hitler We Loved and Why," and his Web site, www.zundelsite.org.

In an opinion released late last week, the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals ruled Zundel is entitled to a hearing challenging his deportation.

"These claims require consideration by the district court,"

the opinion stated.

The U.S. Department of Justice argued that Zundel has already been deported, rendering his petition for relief as moot. The Justice Department also contends that the federal court here lacks any jurisdiction.

But the appellate court countered that those issues should be aired in Knoxville's federal courtroom.

"Whether, as the government argues, (federal law) strips the federal courts of jurisdiction to hear the remaining claims is a matter for the district court to take up," the opinion states. "So is the question whether Zundel waived his right to contest removal ... because it remains unclear whether Zundel most recently entered the country under the ... visa waiver pilot program."

There are many things about Zundel's swift trip back to Canada that the appellate court states it found "unclear."

"The precise nature of the events that resulted in Ernst Zundel's deportation to Canada casts more shadows than light on this appeal," the opinion states.

The court also finds fuzzy the reason for Zundel's continued imprisonment in Canada, where he is not charged with any crime but has been labeled a security threat.

"Canadian officials apparently took Zundel into custody and continue to detain him for reasons not revealed by this sparse record," the opinion states.

Zundel's wife still lives in Sevier County and maintains his Web site, where she posts updates on his case.

In an official response to the 6th Circuit ruling, Ingrid Zundel wrote, "There are dimensions to this important ruling I can't discuss at this point. It means, however, that now we can begin discovery — a process where we can ask questions and demand documents on court directives that are going to expose the depth of deceit and political interference of this deportation that was, in fact, a well-coordinated political kidnapping."

Zundel's imprisonment in Canada has sparked several protests by groups such as the Canadian Association for Free Expression. Those events have drawn counter-protests from antiracism groups.
